Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On December 3, 2024, AT&T Inc. (the Company) issued a press release providing an update on its strategy and financial outlook and announcing a share repurchase authorization. The press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Additionally, beginning with the reporting of first-quarter 2025 financial results, as a result of the pending disposition of our DIRECTV equity method investment, to enhance comparability we plan to recast the presentation of our adjusted diluted earnings per share and free cash flow to exclude results and cash distributions from DIRECTV (both operating and investing activities). Adjusted diluted EPS and free cash flow are non-GAAP financial measures frequently used by investors and credit rating agencies.

Adjusted diluted EPS is calculated by excluding from operating revenues, operating expenses, other income (expenses) and income tax expense, certain significant items that are non-operational or non-recurring in nature, including dispositions and merger integration and transaction costs, actuarial gains and losses, significant abandonments and impairments, benefit-related gains and losses, employee separation and other material gains and losses.

Free cash flow, beginning with reporting for the first quarter of 2025, is expected to be defined as cash from operations minus cash flows related to our DIRECTV equity method investment (cash distributions minus cash taxes paid from DIRECTV), minus capital expenditures and cash paid for vendor financing (classified as financing activities).
